XII. Passports.

* * *

(b) (ii) Persian Embargo.—The procedure of issuing restricted British Passports valid for six months to British Indian Pilgrims remained the same as detailed in paragraph XI (b) (ii) of report for 1930 and 1931.

In 1932, 259 Restricted British Passports were issued to pilgrims returning to India through Persia. It would be much to the convenience of pilgrims if it is widely circulated that pilgrims who intend visiting 'Iraq and returning via Persia should obtain Persian visas on their pilgrim passes before sailing from India. In the case of those pilgrims who hold British Indian Passports and who after performing their pilgrimage in 'Iraq decide to return via Persia a Persian visa is obtainable in Bagdad but only with difficulty.
